Where to Adopt a Dog

They're homeless. You're dogless. We can fix that.

If you don't already have a dog it's possible you're missing out on one of life's greatest pleasures. From the devoted gaze right down to the wagging tail, these faithful friends are a joy to have around, each and every day. Right now, there are thousands of homeless dogs just waiting for the chance of a caring new owner and safe new home. Maybe that owner is you, and the home is yours.

Pet Rescue

Pet Rescue aims to connect families looking for a pet with rescue animals in need of a home. Click here(open in new tab) to give animals a second chance at life.

VOLUNTEER ORGANISATIONS

There are lots of volunteer organizations that also find families and homes for homeless dogs - here are just a few to start you off, but if you know of more then contact us so we can update the list below:

Pet Rescue
www.petrescue.org.nz/animals/dogs(open in new tab)

CHRISTCHURCH:
DOG WATCH
Phone: (03) 981 4708
Adoption Centre 230 Dyers Rd Bromley, Christchurch
Website: www.dogwatch.co.nz(open in new tab)

AUCKLAND:
The Humane Society of NZ
Not only does the humane society find homes for homeless or abandoned animals they also help with fostering and care. Their details are:
Phone : (09) 630 0510
462 Manukau Road, Epsom, Auckland
Website: www.humanesociety.org.nz(open in new tab)

Source URL: https://www.pedigree.co.nz/dog-adoption/where-to-adopt-a-dog